

Leather for Health, Wealth and Luxury!

Terms of Reference

(Institutional Capacity Development & Consultancy Expert)

I. Background

The Africa Leather and Leather Products Institute (ALLPI) was chartered in 1990, with the endorsement of 17 COMESA Heads of States. ALLPI is headquartered in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. Africa Leather and Leather Products Institute is an international organization responsible for the development of leather sector in the Africa continent.

II. Job Title: Institutional Capacity Development & Consultancy Expert

III. Job Summary:

The Institutional Capacity Development & Consultancy Expert is responsible for leading in the designing and implementation of capacity building programs for the leather sector across the African Continent. In addition he/she must spearhead the development of the consultancy portfolio of ALLPI; and the development, implementation and coordination of novel extension models across member states.

IV. Specific Functions and Responsibilities

- Lead in the designing, implementation and review of capacity building and extension programs;
- Support capacity building activities of Focal points, value chain actors and other stakeholders;
- Lead in the designing, reviewing and quality control of curriculums in partnership with vocational, technical and universities;
- Spearhead R & D work, including publication and dissemination in collaboration with research institutions, universities, public and private sector actors;
- Design and implement in partnership with national stakeholder of a robust extension support system;
- Lead in the operationalisation of the regional design studio and satellite stations;
- Undertake internal skills needs assignment, design and facilitate the internal capacity building programs;

Leather for Health, Wealth and Luxury!

